

The Concordian

THE BEST OF CONCORD

The Best Place to Advertise

Advertisers can be confident that The Concordian works!

- In 2009 The Concordian was named Concord Business of the Year by the Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce.
- The Concordian is delivered to over 280 high traffic locations throughout Concord each month, with additional distribution drops in Walnut Creek and Pleasant Hill. Distribution sites are replenished throughout the month and quantity monitored. A complete list is available on our Website.

- Readers can also get The Concordian in the mail for a $30/year subscription.
- The Concordian has a strong presence at the year round Farmers Markets in Todos Santos Plaza and is a member of the Todos Santos Business Association .
- Respected ABC-7 News Anchor Dan Ashley contributes “What Really Matters” in each issue.
- Concord’s Mayor Laura Hoffmeister writes a monthly column along with key business people in our community who offer their views on the pulse of the city.
- The Concordian is a feature-oriented newspaper that focuses on the strengths of the city. People like reading The Concordian and this offers a greater exposure for your advertising.
- Our Website at www.myconcordian.com continues to attract a large readership

The Concordian is a quality publication and a great place for you to trust your advertising. We are Concord’s newspaper of choice.

For more information call
(800) 606-6448