

What Our Readers Say

I read my first issue of your paper today and I am thrilled! Feeling connected to one's community is so important and I feel like you have given me that opportunity.... The Contra Costa Times and other newspapers just seem to be out of touch.

- Danielle Barcena

When I first saw your new Concordian, I knew it was something special. The look of the paper is unique, unlike anything else I've seen! So, that made me want to look inside. It is beautiful, and the stories really make me feel connected to my community. Thanks.

Oh, and I am on my way to get a haircut at Salon Epiffani, eat at Englund's Bistro, get my pic taken at Wentlings, get a tan at Cocobella's, get a shot at Dana Liquors, and just maybe, buy a new house from Josie Van Fleet. (Not necessarily in that order...) I'll tell 'em, The Concordian sent me!!

- Ellen Herdegen

The Concordian is wonderful. It was one of the few things missing from this great city. Most Contra Costa cities already have newspapers/newsletters, and Concord was in desperate need of one.

The first issue was well-organized, well-written/edited, colorful and useful. Excellent work! I already have made several e-mails and phone calls from advertisements and articles I read in the first issue.

Thank you to everyone involved in bringing the Concordian to our community. Keep up the fantastic work, and I look forward to reading and utilizing future issues.
